

Install a front mounted camera by putting the camera in the front grille. Run the Red positive wire back into the passenger compartment and tie it to 12 volts through a slide or toggle switch that lights up when it's being used. When the switch is flipped, the display will come on and show the view out front.

